

☀️Join Our Montessori Family! Upper Elementary Lead Teacher – 2025-2026 ☀️

Montessori Children's School is thriving and expanding! We're on the hunt for a passionate Upper Elementary Lead Teacher ready to inspire curiosity, independence, and a love for learning. Our school serves children ages 2-14, and our campus features beautifully designed classrooms, wooded trails, and peaceful outdoor spaces that make learning an adventure.

Why This Role is Amazing: - Lead a hands-on, Montessori classroom where students flourish. - Integrate outdoor exploration into daily lessons. - Collaborate with a supportive, innovative team of educators. - Shape the next generation in a close-knit, inspiring community.

Who You Are: - A champion of respect for all children, adults, and the world. - Passionate about Montessori education and student-centered learning. - Masterful in kind, effective classroom management. - Creative in designing engaging and stimulating learning environments. - Energized by nature-based and outdoor learning opportunities. - Honest, nurturing, organized, and adaptable. - A collaborative team player eager to grow professionally.

Qualifications: - Montessori certification from a MACTE-accredited training center preferred. - Bachelor's degree with willingness to pursue Montessori certification considered. - Experience teaching upper elementary-aged students is a plus.

Why You'll Love Living in Jacksonville, NC: - Enjoy quiet Atlantic beaches, scenic waterways, and outdoor adventures. - Perfect for fishing, boating, hiking, golf, and biking. - A temperate climate with all four seasons and minimal weather disruptions. - Engaging community activities, festivals, and cultural events. - Conveniently located: 50 miles north of Wilmington, 120 miles east of Raleigh.

Perks & Benefits: - Competitive salary and comprehensive staff benefits. - Opportunity to make a meaningful impact every day.

Ready to Inspire Young Minds? Send your cover letter and resume to mbrusaw@jax.org. Join a team where learning is an adventure and every student thrives!